

December 1, 2015, Muscat

Al Alawi & Co., Advocates & Legal Consultants Welcomes Legal Associate – Banking & Finance!

AACo is proud to announce and welcome Arsalan Buriro as an Associate in its Banking & Finance Group. Arsalan brings a well-established background covering leading and negotiating complex banking & finance transactions, including conventional and Islamic Finance matters. He joins AACo with a particular mandate to further develop the firm's burgeoning Islamic Finance practice, an increasingly important area for AACo.

"We view Arsalan's appointment as a sign of our commitment to being the leading national law firm in Oman, particularly in Corporate Finance & Banking", said Al Hassan Al Alawi, the firm's Managing Partner.

Arsalan is UK qualified and has most recently practiced in Pakistan where he focused on banking and financial regulations, restructurings, cross-border M&A, syndicated financing, project financing, company and commercial laws, investment funds and conventional and Islamic banking transactions. "We're confident that Arsalan will play a key role in implementing our longer-term banking/finance practice strategy, particularly as relates to Islamic Finance", added Jeff Greene, Partner & Head of Corporate Advisory.

About Al Alawi & Co., Advocates & Legal Consultants

AACo is a leading full service national law firm in Oman, with internationally and locally trained attorneys. With a history of more than 30 years in Oman legal market, AACo provides its clients international level expertise and responsiveness, while delivering the utmost on in-country value.

More information on the firm's history, services provided, notable achievements and key leadership can be availed from the below links:

Website: <http://www.alalawico.com/>

Follow us on: <https://om.linkedin.com/in/alalawico>